Ramadan 2027 Classroom Kit

Ramadan 1448 is expected to begin on Monday 8 February 2027 (Taraweeh from the evening of Sunday 7 February), with Eid al-Fitr on 9 or 10 March, depending on the moon sighting your community follows.

This kit gives teachers a simple way to keep children reading the Quran, making dua and doing good every day of Ramadan, at school and at home. Print what you need. Everything is free to photocopy for your students.

What's inside

- Page 2: Class Quran tracker. One row per student, one box per day. Children tick each day they read, at school or at home.
- Page 3: 30-day good-deeds calendar. One small act of kindness for each day of the month.
- Page 4: Ramadan duas cards. The dua for breaking the fast and the duas for each ten days, with meanings and sources. Cut out and send home.
- Page 5: Certificates. "My first fast" and "I learned my Ramadan duas".
- Page 6: Letter to parents. A short note asking families for 10 minutes of Quran a day.

A simple plan for your class

- Before Ramadan: teach the iftar dua in the last week of Sha'ban, so children can say it at the first family iftar. Send home the duas card and the parent letter.
- Days 1 to 10: start every class with the good deed of the day. Tick the Quran tracker together.
- Days 11 to 20: change the dua on the board to the middle-ten dua. Praise steady readers, not just fast ones.
- Last ten nights: teach Surah Al-Qadr and the dua for Laylat al-Qadr. Give certificates in the last class before Eid.

For younger children

Fasting is obligatory from puberty. Many families let children aged 7 to 10 practise with half-day fasts. The "My first fast" certificate is for any practice fast, so no child is left out.

RAMADAN DUAS TO LEARN

The dua for breaking the fast

Dhahaba az-zama', wabtallatil-'uruq, wa thabatal-ajru in sha Allah

"The thirst has gone, the veins are moistened, and the reward is certain, if Allah wills."

Abu Dawud, graded hasan. Begin iftar with Bismillah, and break the fast with dates and water, as the Sunnah teaches.

The intention for fasting

The intention to fast is made in the heart. Waking up for suhoor with the plan to fast is itself an intention. The Prophet ﷺ said: "Eat suhoor, for in suhoor there is blessing" (Bukhari and Muslim).

Tip for parents: let your child say the iftar dua out loud at the family table.

DUAS FOR EACH TEN DAYS

Change the dua every ten days

First ten: Rabbighfir warham wa anta khairur-rahimin

"My Lord, forgive and have mercy, and You are the best of those who show mercy."

Quran 23:118

Middle ten: Astaghfirullaha rabbi min kulli dhanbin wa atubu ilaih

"I seek forgiveness from Allah, my Lord, for every sin, and I turn to Him."

Last ten: Allahumma ajirni minan-nar

"O Allah, save me from the Fire."

The saying that links each ten days to mercy, forgiveness and safety from the Fire has a weak chain, but these are good duas anyone can make at any time.

Ten minutes of Quran a day this Ramadan

Dear parents,

Assalamu alaikum. Ramadan is expected to begin on Monday 8 February 2027. It is the month of the Quran, and the best time of the year to help our children grow close to it.

This Ramadan, our class is aiming for ten minutes of Quran or Qaida every day. Your child has a Quran tracker in class and a duas card to bring home. Here is how you can help:

- Choose a fixed time. Before iftar, after Fajr or before bed. The same time every day makes it a habit.
- Listen, even if you can't read Arabic. Sit with your child and listen. You will hear whether they read smoothly or get stuck.
- Revise, don't race. Re-reading yesterday's lesson matters more than covering new pages.
- Practise the iftar dua together at the family table.
- Let them see you read. Children copy what they see far more than what they are told.

Children who are not yet required to fast may want to try half-day fasts. Please let us know if your child is fasting, so we can keep an eye on them.

JazakumAllahu khairan, and Ramadan Mubarak.
